Classes 1 & 2 (Group A)

1. Updates to testing standards since 20th May 2018.
2. Using the MOT Testing Service to check you're carrying out tests correctly.
3. Updating your user profile details on the MOT Testing Service.
4. Vehicle identification.
5. Tyres, lighting and brakes.
6. The introduction section of the MOT Inspection Manual for Group A vehicles.

Classes 4 & 7 (Group B)

1. Updates to testing standards since 20th May 2018.
2. Using the MOT Testing Service to check you're carrying out tests correctly.
3. Updating your user profile details on the MOT Testing Service.
4. Vehicle identification.
5. Tyres, lighting, brakes and suspension.
6. The driver's view of the road.
7. The introduction section of the MOT Inspection Manual for Group B vehicles.

Groups A and B

If you test vehicles in both group A and B, you need to study all the topics. You also need to train for at least 6 hours a year (instead of 3) and take 2 annual assessments.
